Restaurant Participation

Restaurants and caterers are invited to showcase a taste of their cuisine.

Each year more than 35 of Prince William's finest restaurants and caterers provide tastes of their excellent fare to help the child victims in our community.

Recognition Includes:

Description of cuisine in program
 Inclusion in promotional materials
 Listing and link on website for one year
 Sign over designated tented table
 2 tickets for the event

Auction Donations

Live Auction

Higher valued items and packages are placed in the live auction and are promoted on stage and on the floor by Fred Reger and his auctioneers. Much recognition of the donor and the donated item is given as the attendees are encouraged to bid.

★The donor and donation descriptions listed in the program.

★Donors recognized on CASA web site for one year.

Silent Auction

Items are available for viewing throughout the evening with descriptive cards noting the donor, the item and its value.

★Items and donor are listed in the program.

★Donors are recognized on our web site for one year.

* NOTICE: Sponsorships and restaurant commitments must be received in sufficient time to be included in all promised media. Early commitment insures fulfillment of all promised benefits.

Your Help Can Make the Difference

Court Appointed Special Advocates specially trains and maintains nearly 100 community volunteers to advocate for more than 400 abused, neglected and abandoned children each year.

CASA is a 501 C-3 not for profit that receives no fees or payments for services to children. Evening Under the Stars helps make it possible to provide an advocate for every child who needs one.

Do you have 10 hours a month to help these children in crisis or to serve on the board? To find out about volunteering,
